a Growd Around

Its Doors.

the Officials Think It

Will Resume.

Albany and Takes Charge.

Goes All to Pieces.

Stocks Rally.

Traders' and Market Banks.

vicinity of Washington Market.

was very doubtful.

and take charge of the affairs of the bank.

POLICE ON GUARD.

Two policemen stood guard on the street

"Please present all checks drawn by us or

North River Bank at our office for payment,

"On presentation at our office, 326 Green-

It was said that many other houses had notiing again immediately, if it is able to do so at any depositor, " said a representative of a big

Fulton street fruit frin, who was sign ing

"The bank will come out of it all right and · because the Clearing II case as a promised to er it through and it will not go beek on its word. It may be necessary to wait a tew days, on no one will love any of his money by it,

OLIVIT BROS. "

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1800.

PRICE ONE CENT.

2 O'CLOCK.

SUCCI'S STARVE

Clairvoyant Portraits of the Forty-Five-Day Faster.

As He Will Appear at Different Stages of His Fast.

The Results of an Exploration Into the Land of Hunger.

The intense interest which the attempt of Sig. Giovanni Succi to go without food for forty-five days has aroused, has caused an enterprising Eventuo Would artist to consult a clairvoyant, with the result of securing the following graphic portraits of the plucky Italian as he will appear at certain interesting stages of his starvation act.

FIRST DAY. "Ah! One |fina dinn : |" exclaimed Signor Bucci, as abrrettl's white-capped and muchproped waiter gathered up the dishes which the big-chested Italian had emptied last Wednesday evening, just before he started on his forty-five day exploration into the Land o

"I vill enjoy one segarre, and think of my next meal, which will come on Dec. 20.

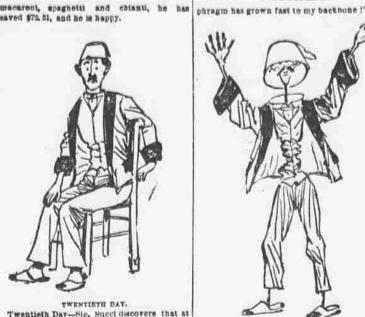

FIFTH DAY. On the fifth day of the fast, Signor Succiplaces one hand on his heart and the other on his thrice empty bread-basket and declared that though he had lost many pounds of hu surplus, qe still felt good from the bottom e his stomaco.

TENTH DAY. Tenth Day-Sig. Succi places his hand on his obing void and remarks with dublous joon

Pifteenth Day-Our Italian guest calculate that at the rate of three sousres a day with Twentieth Day-Sig. Succi discovers that a the rate he is losing flesh he will have entirely vanished by Dec. 20, and wonders if it will be Forty-fifth and Last Day-"The world is mine! I have offers from fifty dime museum possible to rehabilitate the empty air which he once occupted. managers at $10 a week to appear as the living

TWENTY-PIPTH DAY.

to draw the skin of his cheek over the corner of his dressing bureau this morning in order to day World in his smoking-cap to keep his head

make a surface to shave, and had to put a Sup

THIRTIETH DAY.

Thirtieth Day-The distinguished foreigner finds that he has grown so thin that he has to keep his legs crossed and his arms folded in order to prevent his clothes from sliding off on covering off his shoulders.

Twenty-fifth Day-Signor Succi was obliged

FORTY-FIFTH DAY.

skeleton. Bring in a mountain of roast turkey teen and a quarter rounds of himself in the same time, in lieu of other, more nourishing Succi le still as lively as a cricket, and beats all his callers at leats of strength and sgility. He is satisfied with the results of his self-deprivation thus far, and says he has not had an one or a pain since the soreness of the first forty-eight hours left him. Sig. Succi's first experience as a faster in civilized countries was rather discouraging. He had been ten years in Africa, and says that in the Nubian deserts, where there was nothing but those not too clean Arabs to feed on he went sixty days without nourishment. In 1884 he was lecturing in Italy on his African experiences. At Rome, during his African experiences. At Rome, during als lecture, he proclaimed his ability to live without food, and amounted that he should make such an experiment in fulfic, and would attain from food for thirty also.

This was the talk of the gossips of the ancient city, and three days later Sig. Succi was arreased as a function.

"Ze politeram in the tasks me to be fongarea. Ze Longarea it wan food house," relates the Signor in his peculiar English.

"I saw what for 7 And key tell me I am wan to your pour to to your pour to the second section."

e was a iduatic.

**Fools: Fools all in ze Longarra! Zey go Zoon! Zoon! Woo! Wall Wow! all ze

For a moment he seemed lost in thought, two of whom had had fasting experience. One had fasted ten and the other twenty days, and with Signor Succe. But they did not ir names.

Dules.

220 Bine Jeans. 110 370† Ballyhou
3:5 binggard.....102 316 Autocrat

Senator Bixby's Mother Dead.

morning. She ded vesterday at the some of nor daughter, Mrs. David Welmore, 118 Lex-ngton avenue. Sepator Francis M. | 1 Koy was announced tols

AN EXCESSIVE IMPORTATION

From Which the Public Will Reap the Brnest for the Next Three Days Only.

death of Mrs. Caroline M. Bigny,

	LINDEN ENTRIES.
	First Bace.—Sweepstakes, for all ages; five fur- longs, India; 10:12   India; 10:13   India; 10:14   14:14   Kitty Van.   18: 3841   Faliston.   10:1   10:1   Mahel Gienn.   97 357   Ecle.   10:1   3:1   Nellie Big.   90 (344)   Bitthe.   10:1   10:1   Nellie Big.   90 324   Cantess.   10:0   10:0   Myopia nij.   87 Second Race. Sweepstakes   10:   10:0   Myopia nij.   87 Second Race. Sweepstakes   10:0   10:0   Myopia nij.   87 Second Race.
	six furbougs.  ntex ntex 1817 Dictum 1818 Districk
延门门门	olds: Eve futions: Ib. Index. Ib. Index. Ib. Index. Ib. Index. Ib. Index. Ib. Index. Ib. Ib. Index. Ib. Ib. Ib. Index. Ib. Ib. Ib. Index. Ib. Ib. Ib. Ireliamond. Ib. Ib. Ib. Ib. Ib. Ib. Ib. Ib. Ib. Ib
THINTY-FIFTH DAY.  Day—Sig. Succi respectfully de- vitation to dine at Delmontoo's, use no dress suit that will fit him.	Index

Thirty-fifth

clines an inv

FORT: BYH DAY, Fortieth Day-" Great Garibaldi 1 My

Reginald Birchall Goes to the Gallows To-Morrow.

His Nervy Talk with an "Evening also suicide. The Sheriff had a fear that possor World" Representative, Wouldn't Care, Poor Girl!"

[SPECIAL TO THE EVERING WORLD.] Woodstock jail this morning, where J. Reginald Birchail sat awaiting his fate-the fate of a condemned murderer. But there was nothing in the demeanor o was to die on the gallows to-morrow. Through the courtesy of Chief of Police Wills, the Evening World representative had

SUBCRALL IN PALMY DAYS. From a photograph of himself (on the left) and friend. an interview with the condemned man this morning. himself when the reporter entered his cell.

"Good morning. How are you?" he exclaimed quite cheerily, and his saug froid was

This man, who had the nerve to pass through all the deliberate moves in his scheme of word of which reached him on Theaday. duping Frederick C. Benweil, bringing him here and murdering him, was just as common piace this morning as the brakeman on the L road, with whom you, reader, rode dow Signor in his peculiar English.

'I say what for? And zey tell me I am wan fold, for I say I can live not eating. I say I can. I wan tool.

'Zey say I must stay zere so long I say I can. I wan tool.

'Zey hat me on one straw bed. Zey put me on my back. Zey put me so!

'The Signor illustrated his meaning by lying prone on his lack, placing imaginary manages on his wists and on his anxies and fasten ng them to the four corners of the big mahogany them to the four corners of the big mahogany bed.

'None at all, that I can see, Birchail remonded with a smile. 'I am sure to go out

Then he said that he was kept in this most excruciating apread-eagle position for twenty-four hours. It was found that he was harmless, at least, and the manacles were removed.

Every day he beseched his captors to liberate halb, and every day he was refused, as gambler in my lifetime and have never rubbed are particularly. and die to-morrow morning. If it were not owners do not care to risk their charges in such gazing ont through his iron-barred window, through which the cold Canadian sun streamed to the cold Canadian sun streamed

The Signor yelled these things with puckered lips, three his hair and dio fity other things to show what he had had sating experience. One whole had had sating experience. One whole had had sating experience. One with the sating of whole had had sating experience. One with the sating of the sating experience. One with the sating experience. One with the sating experience of the sating experience. One with the sating experience. One with the sating experience. One with the sating experience of the sating experience. One with the sating experience of the sating experience. One with the sating experience of the sating experience of the sating experience. One with the sating experience of th biance of joy in his mirth now. " How many men have you seen hanged?" he asked curiously.

" Thirteen, " was the answer. "And I'll be your fourteenth spectacle, ch ?" he suggested.

. I did not like to say so. "No. no. I understand: but really you can not make me feel nervous. I know what is coming and am prepared. You are about the only newspaper man with whom I have talked this week, and really I feet better for seeing a strange face. The man does not seem to have fear in his

As to has stated himself, in the history of his life, which he has written, he lacks moral principle.

The general feeling in Woodstock is that he is guilty of Benwell's murder, but he has many ardent admirers, who would like to see his sentence commuted. Every one says he is the greatest liar that ever lived; nevertheirs, they all qualify the charge with some remark winding up with the wish that he might get off with his life. There is no lope for tim, though. Die ho must on the gallows to-morrow morotog. The town is overrun with currous people The Commercial House, where The Evening

Night Race. - Newspotakes for all ages; seven fur- Word Dispresentative has a room next to that of Mrs. Elitchali and her stater, Mrs. West Jones, is crowded to its utmost capacity. People linger in the corridors at meal time, anxiously seeking sight of the pretty wife of the condemned man. Her table is surroun ted waite she cale. Men and women laten eagerly for any word which she may let drop.

The woman has grown thin and pale ever within the last week. She firmly believes her husband innocent of actual murder, and the strain on her nervous system is something terribie. Her husband to devoted to her. His last words to THE EVESthe Would reporter this morning were:

it were not for my wife I would not care,

High-class suits for which the order was placed in Europe several months ago for this Fall and Winter's trade to sed at $10. $18 and $25 a smit, the English Haber dashery Co. of 180 Broadway, are forced to realize on them now. With this end in view they have innumerated for the next three days only a Grand Special Sale at the uniform price of $10.50 a smit, and will endeavor to sell the entire tot of 1057 smit, consisting of single or double breasted ache, three-button situaways. English walking suits, three-button situaways. English walking suits, three-button situaways. English walking suits, the blige the tots of 1057 smit. The paracase and his wife were together for hand the closerable fairies most in vague, it has a randy ever happened that such the goods have been offered to the public at such a reliculous low price. several times the husband classed closely in by Cantages Lives Pills "," It is in a perfectly solvent condi- after which it becke again to be and Smally the ## his arms the dear one whom he is so soon to leave peatud. After the interview was over, Mrs. Birchall returned to her hotel and had a long spell of hysterics, while the condemned man remained for a long time in the state of depression into which thoog is of his wife and her sorrows seem always to plunge him. birchall is not now in the same cell in which be has spent the previous portion of the confinement here. His change of quarters was accomplished last evening and is due to overiff Perry's apprehensions lest the murderer turer some weapon might be concealed in the old cell, which the prisoner might use at the last If there is any ground for such mistrust o Birchan's injentions as to his latter end, it is If It Were Not for My Wife I hot apparent to the ordinary observer. On Total Ruin Feared, Though the contrary, it seems more and more as if the

the law has directed, and to meet his fat gamely. Birchall is one of five murderers now await Woodstore, Ont., Nov. 12.—The wind ing execution in the two Provinces of Ontario whistied shrilly through the leadess branches and Queued. At are to die within the next of the old oak trees surrounding the ancient seven weess, and for Birchail and three of the others the fatal day is a Friday. This is not due to any custom, but is only a the man had fully made up his mind to die as nance circumstance of dates. The jan here has seen thoroughly cleaned the man that would lead one to suspect that he up and brightened, as if to-morrow's event were to be a housewarming rather than hanging. The whitewash brush and the scrubbing brush have been actively plied by the prisoners, and the gloomy walls have taken on new appearance Birchall cannot see the gallows from his cel rindow, though a portion of the Jali grounds is visible. The scaffold has been erected in he southwest corner of the western yard. There is probably no chance of bungling ork about the execution. It is to be con ducted by a professional flangman, the same ne was lately superintended the legal taking off of Murderers Kane, at Toronto, and Smith

A decision is expected to-day from the Attorsey-General as to whether Birchall's friends may have his body for interment outside the jail yard. There is little doubt that the proviions of the law will be waived and that Mrs. Birchall will be allowed to bury her husband where she will. Letters from cranks, some from sympathis-

condemnation have come in a constant stream in the prisoner's mail and in his wife's | Cahill has been in charge of the bank, and has also. They fly thicker in these last hours. The murgerer has been cursed, prayed for and tion of its securities. pleaded with in every imaginable epistolary Birchall had just arisen and was washing way, and the widely scattered sources of these on hand at daybreak this morning to continue messages is evidence of the broadcast interest in the case.

ers and some with utterances of exhortation

Next to that of his wife's condition and prossects the subject which touches Birchail most steeply is that of his mother's dangerous illness,

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Tipsters' Opinions as to the Various Winners To-Day.

Linden's fields are again light to-day, but this is more on account of the state of the track than anything else. The conditions and wich streets, and were cagerly canvassing the handicaps are tempting enough, but many situation.

looking clerks, who had been kept at work till are named to start. Tipstaff carries less weight to-day, and is called upon to give away they were squiezed in one at a time through lumps of weight to such good ones as Matel the side door on Greenwich street, which was senn, Nellie Bly, Bitne and Eolo. It is guarded by a watchful doorman, who refused to admit anybody unless he was an employee of side. The notice of suspension was still peated on the outer glass door, and under it was an-in the second race the weight on the three other notice which read as follows:

He laughed again, but there was no sem- match, only hadge and Belwood starting. The wich street, all checks drawn on this bank by street, it was stated this morning that that inmatch, only Radge and Delegated upon to distance is a mile and Badge is called upon to give Belwood four pounds. Radge is nauch to the street, an extract of the Mechanica and Trajers Bank, as required, and that there had been no run upon it. give Belwood four pounds. Badge is in such excellent condition that he should do this this bank at % Park place, for payment, "W. H. Parker." The two-year-olds in the fourth race abouid make a good race. From Simrock's last race it s evident that he likes heavy soing, and he is h tip-top shape just now. He ought to win o-day, tignidura has an excellent chance with to-day, issuidura has an excellent chance with her weight for the place, and Lepanto ought to be no worse than third.

The Ufin race is a selling sweepatakes at six and one-tail furiongs, and it house as though Rambler, on his past performances, had a critical morizage on the purse. He should win. kitty yan may be second and Carnegie third.
Only four start in the last race and Autograthas decidedly the best of the weights. He should win. Hallyhoo may be second and files Jeans ought to beat Singgard out for third place. doors that were builted against him. Perhaps, though, it is best that they closed up

The Sporting World makes the following se erions:
First Rice-Tipstoff, Neille Bly,
second three-Dictum, 8t. Parrick.
Third trace-Dictum, 7t. Parrick.
Fourth Mace-Activity, Zenoba.
Fr to Rice-Carnegle, Lemmi floas right Rice-Autocraft, Ballynoo.

From Other Morning Papers. First Hace-Bittor, Martel Glenn, Second Hace-B & Colara, St. Patrick, There Hare-Belwood, Fourth Hace-Simrick, Service, First Ruce-Mons en, Rambler, Sixtu Ruce-Bailynoo, Automat.

First Race-Tipstaff, Nollie Bir From Race—Tining, Schie Mr.
Schon Hace—Man Fre, St. I allies.
Third Hace—B.dge.
Fourth Hace—Mono h. Prince Edward.
Sixth Hace—Autocrat, Ballyson.

First Bace Nellie Bly, Mahel Gira Second Bace Kate Clark, St. Patr. Third Bace Balge. Fourth Race Shirrock, Guilliara. Fifth Hace - Monacou, Carnegia, Saxtii Bace - Bitte Jeans, Bulying. Pool-Selling at Louisville.

the bank about w o'clock. As he went up fued to this stock. LOUISVILLE, Nov. 12, -Pools were sold at milier A Co. s Torf Exchange to-night, on the races at Linden Park, as fellows; anxious acquantances. First Race, Tipstaff, $15 Make Glenn : Seine Big $10 sech Birtle, $6 citere $5 sach becomd Rece, Diction, $15, Kimpus and Patrick, $10 sech Kaie Clark, $6, cibers. "I can say nothing definitely at present," Third Race. Badge, 230 Bellwood, 274, Fourth Race. Service, 215. Zelocita and blannets, 210 es h. Trelliamoud and Lepanto, 210 as h. Trelliamoud and Lepanto, 210 Lemon Bosson, 25 trangular, Prince Edward, Kambler and Children, 25 cach others, 24 cach take, 25 cach tak gets through with the books."

riess pressed for ready money.

good times it would have been different. "

SANGUINE BANK OFFICERS.

tion and was only temporarily pressed for "We will certainly be opened again for business in a very short time," With that the ## casnier disappeared through the doorway and the iron door was slammed behind him. was the only officer of the bank that had arrived up to that hour. Meanwhile the crowd in front of the bank had grown to large proportions. All the small to tiers and commission merchants in the send hormood seemed to have something at stake, and the only happy ones among them were those who had been prudent enough to about 12.

draw out their money yesterday as soon as they heard the rumors affecting the bank's There is a safe deposit business run in connection with the bank, and many of those who down the prices of all the active stocks on the came early were anxious about their boxes in list at the opening. the vaults.

They were greatly relieved when they were all those who had their keys with them were permitted to go in and lake away their securi-

Every few minutes the big green door would Bank Examiner Preston Arrives from paper tucked snugly under his arm and an expression of intense satisfaction upon his face. EXAMINER PRESTON ABBIVES.

went into consultation with the bank's officials. | given by the break in North American. American Company Stock The object of his visit was to examine the securities in the hank's possession, with a view | Car 5% and Northern Pacific preferred 8%. All of secert. Ining if they are of such a character the other stocks advanced in proportion, and as will justify the associated banks in advanced at noon were selling at from & to % above last ing sufficient money to the North River Bank | night's closing quotations.

to float it out of its present troubled waters. Big Flurry on the Exchange, but Other At 10.35 o'clock a messenger of the United replied yes, but decilned to say where it came No Trouble at the Mechanics and from or now much it contained.

A gentleman on the street, who said he was street. The doors of the North River Bank, which on its feet. has fallen a victim to Tuesday's financial

Mr. John B. Foulke was reported by one of squall, were closed and tightly boited this morning when business began stirring in the came from the Clearing-House at 11 o'clock, porter; "but step in and see the President." and that he had learned there that the condi-Ever since the suspension was announced tion of the bank was much worse than had yesterday afternoon Examiner Edward H. been given out, and that it would certainly take neveral days to straighten out its affairs. been making a thorough and careful investiga-

A rumor gained credence on the street that John H. Starm had sent to President Gedney which secured our being mentioned as in He spent most of the night there, and was his personal check for $150,000, and had wired arrears at the Cleating-House," said Mr. that he would honor drafts to the extent of $250,- bchlesinger. his work. He sent for hupt. Preston, of the State Banking Department, to come to town At Mr. Starin's office, however, this was explicitly denied, and the a-sertion was made Depositors were told that as soon as soon as that Mr. Starlin had but a very small interest and it was not our fault that it did. We had possible a statement would be prepared, but in the North River Bank. not until then would it be known how they stand. The feeling among those who had money in the bank was not one of extreme would be redeemed on presentation at the ad- met before 2 o'clock. dresses given: In fact, it appeared that the bank was so heavily involved in its loan account that the and 48 Warren street, prospect of its ever being able to resume again Forman & Page, 112 Warren street. Dey & Kugler, 56 and 58 Constance avenue The auxious ones began to arrive at the scene West Washington Market, early this morning, for the Washington Market butchers and produce men are none of them S. T. Long & Bro., 82 and 84 Dey street.

John H. Franke, 71 Dey street. late risers, and at a o'clock a large crowd had collected at the corner of Dey and Greenstartman, Goldsmith & Co., 45 Warren atreet.

C. S. Durting, 192 Duane street. J. Philip Schlichter, 229 Fulton street. The main door was securely bolted and no ENORMOUS LOANS THE CAUSE. one could gain admission there. As the tired-a sate hour last night, came straggling along the North River Bank were $1,975,600 and its acquisition of that property was well founded. loans $2, 013, 50% shown that the loans have increased enormously during the last two or three weeks.

up Union Pacific was very plausible, and said "The trouble with the North River Bank," if it proved true Mr. Gould would give that said a downtown bank President to an Even- road a very wise administration.

only $240,000 CLEARING-HOUSE SESSION. The Clearing-tiouse Committee are in session this morning, and it is understood that they would take some immediate action with Pacific and other Gould roads feasible or prob-This is a large produce commission house at reference to the North River Bank,

FULTON BANK ALL BIGHT.

It was explained that the Fulton and Market Bank collected some country accounts for the the outcome of three or four years of hard ned their creditors to do the same, for there Mechanics and Traders', and had in its hands fighting with big rivals. appeared to be no prospect of the bank's open- a number of checks of the latter bank for col A meeting of the Board of Directors of the tion at the time of the flurry in Wall street on Tuesday.

"I made a deposit at the bank only fifteen The Mechanics and Traders' Bank claimed minutes before it closed yesterday, " said one that it had a right to these checks, but the citizen, as he gazed ruefully at the big, gram other bank denied this, as it had paid cash for them and refused to give them up. "They have got all my buttons in there, and

The capital of the Fulton and Market Bank don't know when I will ever see them again, is $750,000, while that of the Mechanics and $200,000. It would cost a good deal of money Traders' is only $200,000. The former has when they did, or they might be deeper in the been a member of the Clearing-House for he expected that the atocknoiders would retorty years, and does not clear through the ceive about 85 per cent. "I have as large an recount in the bank as Mechanics and Traders', as stated,

SLUMP IN NORTH AMERICAN.

we'll all get our money," he ad ed connecently. The Worst Rumors as to the Com pany-Fxcitement on Change. The stock market opened with a furry of excitement the morning, and its leading feature * I have a small personal account in there, " was the disastrons break in North American, said a third, "and I wish I fell as sure of get-ring it out. I don't see why it was that the The first sales were made as soon as the more less injured, last evening, by the plunglearing-House people let them suspend when gong sounded at 16 which was 14 below last ng of an Overland Pacific train through the they it digiven evity assurance to the public highl's closing prices. Everybody seemed to north end of the trestle over Lake Labiah, five that the trank a sain no danger."

Another depositor tried to draw comfort lew and far between. have some of it to sell, and the buyers were miles from this city.

prices. The general feeling seemed to be that They have the assets," he said, " but they it was a stock to be gotten rid of at any each cannot result on term. The President told See, and the result snowed that the brokers meso last night. If the bank had failed in were doing their rest to carry out this theory. It broke first to 12 then to 10, and finally Cashler F. to Ingersoil made his apprarance. the first few minutes of the opening were con-

the signs to the side shoot there was a general in misture blocks of it changed hands, and rush for him, and be was unmediately as those who had bought it at prices ranging from sailed with a hundred inquiries from his 17 to 20 yesterday seemed glad to get out of in their holdings with any saving at all. At the lowest price, however, the market

he said, as he saged up to the door reasy to tonk a turn, and it was evident that there was saip in as soon as it was opened. ** We expect a strong influence behind the market to keep o have a statement ready some time this forcup the price, as was shown in yesterday's

The whole train made the plunge, including coop, but we must wait until the staminer dealings, despite the fact that everybody bethe engine. Digrate, express and smokinglieved that the Company was in a bankrup: Is there any possibility that the bank will condition and was willing to slaughter price resume business?' inquired a reporter of Tax on the strength of the disclosures of the past Events Woman.

"There is not a doubt of it," replied the There was a rally and then an advance to it,

2 O'CLOCK.

market became comparatively steady at

The first break in North American combined with the discoursging effect produced by the cable advices, which showed a lower market in London for American securities, dragged Lauisville and Nashville opened at a decline They were greatly relieved when they were of 2% from last night's closing prices. Palliold that none of these had been disturbed, and man stock was 5 points down, Northern Pacific preferred 1%. Union Pacific 1% and the rest of the list averaged a decline of about 1 per cent. from yesterday's closing figures.

away back and a depositor would come out long, and the buoyancy which was manifested with an oblong bundle wrapped up in brown in the general market yesterday soon began to

Within an hour after the opening of business prices had been advanced all along the line, State Bank Examiner Preston arrived at the and the buyers became more pientiful, as conank at 10.55, and was at once simitted and fidence was restored after the first surprise Louisville came up 2% points, Pullman Palace

MECHANICS AND TRADERS' FOUND O. E. The Mechanics and Traders' Bank, at Broad-States Express Company, with a large package way and Broome street, was mentioned with in his hand, rushed up the steps and was the North River Bank as in arrears to the promptly admitted. To the reporter's question if it was a money package, the messenger The hour for opening this morning arrived, however, and business was resumed as though there had been no financial upheavat in Wall a large depositor, told The Evenino World All of the bank's officials were on hand early, man that it would require fully a million dollars from the associated banks to put the bank | down, were a smile of serene confidence which augured well for the stability of the institution. "Everything is all right here," said Cashier the waiting depositors to have said that he | Pernando Baltes to THE EVENING WORLD re-

President Thaimessinger was too busy with preparations for the opening of business to talk, and referred the reporter to Director Leo Schlesinger, who was present in his office. "That was a very fortunate occurrence

"It afforded us an excellent opportunity to prove our stability. "Of course it should never have occurred,

$210,000 in the Pulton Market National through After 11 o'clock the following firms posted which we cleared to meet obligations to the notices on the bank doors that their checks amount of $199,000, and they should have been

"There is no danger to this bank whatever Morrow Shoe Manufacturing Company, 41 in the present crisis. You see, we are connected in no way with Wall street. Our business is entirely of a mercantile character and is not affected with a stock market slump. "We have been visited by Bank Examiner Cabiii, and he found everything here in the most satisfactory condition. "

GOULD AND THE UNION PACIFICA Notwithstanding the partial and technical lentals by Jay Gould that he had acquired a controlling interest in the Union Pacific Railroad, the report was an absorbing topic on According to its statement made to the Wall afreet to-day, and the belief was comlearing House last Saturday, the deposits of monly expressed that the story of Mr. Gould's In an interview with a Would correspondent Comparing this with previous reports it is in San Francisco last evening C. P. Hunting-ing Would reporter this morning, "is that it Mr. Huntington said he had made proposi-was trying to do too large a business on a tions to the Atchiaon people looking to a conhad not as yet been acted upon. He declined to say whether he deemed a further consolidation of transcontinental lines with the Union ANOTHER COMPANY RETIRES.

Following the news in yesterday's EVENTED At the Fulton and Market Bank, at 83 Fulton | Wonld of the decision of the Kulckerbocker The suspension of these two companies is

Guardian Fire Insurance Company is being held to-day and the business will be closed up as expeditiously as possible. President Paye, who will have charge of ilquidating the business, sain this morning that his company would pay all its indebtedness and that its assets amounted to about to re-insure their policy holders, he said, and

The timarman has been in existence for wenty-six years. It was incorporated with a capital of $200, 600.

THREE KILLED, MANY INJURED.

Fatal Plunge of an Overland Pacific Train Through a Trestle.

SALEN, OTC., Nov. 18.-A number were It is believed the number of deaths will from the fact that the bank half suspended in a lit came out by the carribad and was dumped reach ten. Among the killed are these: shaky time, when every institution was more upon the floor with an utter disregard of _____ McFalben, sugincer. Among the injured are the following:

capt. Jack Chawfonn, the poet-soont, SANUEL ANSON, New York, side hurt and sold down as low as 7, and all the dealings of Back strained, but down as low as 7, and all the dealings of lift, Hannet and wife, Philadelphia, spinal M. Bannow, back straine L

J. L. KLEBERTER, DACK BUTE.

GENERAL AND IN G. NEWMAN, painfully injured about the breest.

James McCanny, United States Marshal, of Sail Lake, Utan, use broken, leg broken and internally fojured, perhans fatuly, UTA. C. BERLIEV, Misses May and NELLIE BOYLE, and Wilson BERMY, all Injured about the throst.

The whole train made the plunge, including cars and three sleeping-cars. The water was auallow under the treatle and the wrecked train lay in the soft mud.

Opticions and Refractiouists. A. Jak